

Harry Ukaejiofor, FCI Arb, is a Nigerian disputes practitioner with close to two decades' experience in commercial litigation and arbitration. He is an Associate Partner at Ukiri & Lijadu, where he leads the firm's Dispute Resolution Group.

His practice is focused on acting as counsel in domestic and international arbitration, as well as complex commercial litigation and mediation. He has represented clients in institutional and ad hoc proceedings, with experience spanning sectors such as energy, finance, aviation, international trade, and product liability, and is regularly involved in cross-border disputes.

Harry is a member of the Nigeria Branch of the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators (UK), the Lagos Court of Arbitration, and sits on a number of arbitration panels. He has also received appointments as arbitrator.

He is a Faculty Member of the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators and an approved tutor on its professional courses. He has contributed to arbitration scholarship, including the Nigeria Report for the ICCA "Right to a Physical Hearing" Project. He is a Notary Public for Nigeria and has rights of audience before the AIFC Court in Kazakhstan.