

PROFESSIONAL PROFILE

Ufuoma Mamoke Ovesuor is a Corporate Commercial and Energy Lawyer with robust experience in Alternative Dispute Resolution, Corporate Governance, and Strategic Business Advisory Services. She is an accomplished Alternative Dispute Resolution Advocate with a proven track record of delivering top-tier legal services, combining legal acumen with a proactive approach to addressing diverse challenges and facilitating complex transactions.

She is currently a Senior Associate at LeLaw (Barristers and Solicitors). An alumna of the reputable Queen's College, Lagos (QC), she holds a bachelor's degree in Law from the University of Ibadan and has been called to the Nigerian Bar.

In 2012, she embarked on her legal journey at a leading litigation firm based in Lagos. Following this, she pursued her LLM in Energy and Natural Resources Law at Queen Mary University of London, specializing in International Arbitration and Energy, International Construction Contract and Arbitration, and International Trade and Investment Dispute Settlement, completing her studies in 2014.

She holds membership in the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators, UK (MCI Arb), and is recognised as an Associate of the Institute of Chartered Secretaries and Administrators of Nigeria (ACIS). Presently, she actively participates in various capacities within the legal community, including as a member of the Arbitration and Alternative Dispute Resolution Committee of the Nigerian Bar Association Section on Business Law (NBA-SBL). Furthermore, she holds the role of Assistant Secretary for the Corporate Governance and Compliance Committee within NBA-SBL, and contributes her expertise as a member of the Arbitration Committee within the Nigeria Bar Association Section on Legal Practice (NBA-SLP).

Additionally, she is an active Member of the Young Members Group of the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators UK (Nigerian Branch), the Young International Arbitration Group (YIAG), the International Chamber of Commerce Young Arbitration Forum (ICC YAF), and Young ICCA (International Council for Commercial Arbitration).

She has actively engaged in numerous webinars, conferences, and programs organised by both the National and State Chapters of the Institute, demonstrating her dedication to staying updated and involved in the community's ongoing discussions and advancements.